

Tech Tip Tuesday

April 2, 2019

---

Tech Tip

More Science Sites

Great Site for Other Content Areas

Spotlight

This week's Spotlight on Strategies is.... Pause and Play

Watching a video for academic reasons is very different from watching a video for entertainment. The Pause and Play strategy provides structure to help students apply comprehension strategies to make sense of digital material they are viewing.

Monthly Challenge

New Integration:
Adobe Spark with GF Google Domain
Making a Post in Adobe Spark
Making a WebPage in Adobe Spark
Making a Adobe Spark Video

April PD in Your PJs

April is here and it's time for our last month of free, online training sessions from Seesaw for PRISM credit!

How do You get PRISM Credit:

1. Watch a webinar (Webinar Schedule)
2. Implement an activity from the webinar in your classroom
3. Fill out this Google Form \(April\)
4. Tech partners will add your name to “MyLearningPlan” for Continuing Ed Prism credit.

-If you miss the live session, Seesaw will email you the link to watch the webinar and presentation at a later time.

-Max of 30 hours for the school year = 2 Continuing Ed/Prism credits for these online Seesaw PD trainings

---

Don't forget! You can also earn 3 hours of PRISM if you complete the Seesaw Ambassador Program!

- Complete the online Ambassador training at your convenience. Apply here: <https://app.seesaw.me/#/ambassadors/apply>
- Training is found under your Seesaw Teacher Settings. Tutorial here <https://goo.gl/mV7GkL>
  - Once you've finished the online Seesaw Ambassador training, complete the PRISM form <https://goo.gl/wLLDme> which includes uploading a screenshot of your Seesaw Ambassador certificate as evidence.

---

Last day to submit any PRISM hours for Seesaw is April 26th.